Do you want to share some good news with the rest of CHS? There is a new place to do it: The Warrior Wall! (The bulletin board is located by Mr. Bossman's room.) If you did well on a quiz or a test, passed your driver's test, received a place in an organization or sporting event, achieved a goal, got a new vehicle, got accepted to the college of your choice, received a scholarship, got a job, etc., then bring a typed version of your news to Mr. Bossman for posting on the Warrior Wall. Type it in 24 point font and hit return every 4-5 words so your news is compact. Don't get too wordy; just give us the base facts. Stop in to see what's going on in your fellow students' lives from time to time.
